

Participating: Carolyn Dahl (Alabama), Hi Fitzgerald (Michigan State), Steve Jones (NC State), Craig Weidemann (Penn State), Dick Wootten (NASULGC)

Problem: There is no set of commonly agreed-upon performance indicators for engagement, in contrast to other performance areas of the university.

Possible CECEPS contributions:

1. Develop clearinghouse of information regarding practices used at various institutions and related initiatives
2. Discussion session at NASULGC National Conference, November 2003
3. Build upon ongoing work of CIC institutions – extend and test in institutions beyond CIC
4. Focus of 2004 Summer Meeting

Preliminary list of related initiatives:

1. Scholarship of Engagement project
2. CIC Committee on Engagement
3. Points of Distinction: A Guidebook for Planning and Evaluating Quality Outreach – Michigan State
4. Urban Universities Portfolio Project
5. Civic Engagement Indicators, IUPUI
6. UniSCOPE 2000: A Multidimensional Model of Scholarship for the 21st Century – Penn State
7. Faculty Guide – Relating Public Service to Promotion and Tenure
8. Commitment to the Wisconsin Idea: A Guide to Documenting and Evaluating Excellence in Outreach Scholarship
9. The Futures Project, Brown University